Hilton Garden Inn - Albany Medical Center
62 New Scotland Avenue, Albany, NY 12208

Sponsored by The Alden March Bioethics Institute at Albany Medical College and the Office of Continuing Medical Education in conjunction with the Albany Medical Center Hospital Provider Unit
Course Description

The 2014 AMBI Clinical Ethics Conference is a conference in which keynote speakers, guest faculty, and conference participants gather at the Alden March Bioethics Institute in Albany, New York, for a full day of engaging discussions and breakout sessions revolving around a single theme namely ethical dilemmas in the Emergency Department arena.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this conference, participants will be able to:

- Characterize the reasons situations are or become ethical dilemmas in the emergency department.
- List and discuss several ethical dilemmas that arise in the emergency department.
- Identify some preventative ethics strategies to minimize or avoid ethical dilemmas in the emergency department.
- Describe typical circumstances that might lead to team conflict in the emergency department.
- Identify causes of moral distress team conflict.
- List and discuss several typical problematic discharges from the emergency department.
- Explain why these examples are ethical dilemmas.
- Discuss realistic solutions in dealing with problematic discharges from the emergency department.

Target Audience

This conference will be of interest to institutional ethics committee members, physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, pharmacists, social workers, chaplains, hospice staff, case managers, lawyers, healthcare facility administrators, and others interested in healthcare decision making.

Accreditation

Albany Medical College is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Albany Medical College designates this Live activity for a maximum of 6.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AAPA accepts Category 1 credit from AOACCME, Prescribed credit from AAFP, and AMA Category 1 CME credit for the PRA from organizations accredited by the ACCME.

An application has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians. Determination of credit is pending.

Albany Medical Center is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

This Learning Activity will be awarded 6.1 Continuing Nursing Education Contact Hours.
