An article entitled "The Impact of a Clinical Rotation in Hospice: Medical Students' Perspectives" by Dr. Liva Jacoby and Dr. John Balint, in collaboration with Dr. Connie Beehler was published in the January issue of the Journal of Palliative Medicine.

The study is a qualitative analysis of AMC students' essays about their learning experiences during their 3rd year hospice rotation. Click here for the article.