AMBI Faculty Zubin Master, PhD Obtains Research Grant

Dr. Zubin Master has recently been successful in obtaining a £5000 research grant from the Committee on Publication Ethics in the UK. The research is in collaboration with Dr. Bryn Williams-Jones at the University of Montreal and Dr. David Resnik at the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences, NIH. The research project aims to understand the norms, values and practices surrounding authorship assignment and ranking of multidisciplinary research groups using public health scholarship as example.
